

Local Veterinary Assistance (WA/OR)

Humane Society for Southwest Washington HELP! Fund

(360) 984-6068

The HELP! Fund was created to assist low-income families with the cost of providing urgent veterinary care for their pet. You must be a current Clark County resident and be the owner of a dog, cat, or rabbit that needs treatment. Your pet must have an urgent medical condition that requires specific treatment, with a good chance of a positive outcome. The fund cannot pay for cancer treatment, experimental therapies, or the routine cost of ongoing, chronic medical conditions. Preventative care, such as vaccines or wellness visits, is not covered.

Oregon Humane Society's Community Veterinary Clinic

oregonhumane.org/care | (503) 802-6800

Oregon Humane Society's Community Veterinary Hospital is dedicated to offering accessible full-service veterinary care to clients and their pets. Services will be offered on a sliding scale to minimize the financial barriers faced by those who are low-income or on government assistance. Available services include preventative care, urgent care, dentistry, surgery, and diagnostics.

DoveLewis Velvet Assistance Fund

(503) 228-7281

The Velvet Assistance Fund is intended to help low-income pet owners who state a financial need when their pet is admitted to DoveLewis Emergency Animal Hospital for outpatient (non-hospitalized) emergencies. The pet must have a good prognosis without fatal injuries or unrecoverable symptoms. Pet owners must first apply to CareCredit or Scratchpay.

PacWest Compassionate Care Fund

pacificnwvets.com | 360-635-5302

Provides financial assistance to families experiencing financial hardship whose pet needs emergency or specialty veterinary care at Pacific Northwest Pet ER & Specialty Center.

Animal Aid Cares Fund (Portland)

animalaidpdx.org/aacf | (503) 292-6628

The Animal Aid Cares Fund was created to help those facing urgent and overwhelming medical or behavioral care needs.

West Columbia Gorge Humane Society JAR Fund

wcghs.org | (360) 835-3464

The JAR Fund at West Columbia Gorge Humane Society assists low-income families in Camas or Washougal with the cost of providing urgent veterinary care for their pet. Pets must have a good prognosis and be spayed or neutered within 30 days of treatment. Pet owners must first apply to CareCredit.

Portland Animal Welfare (PAW) Team

pawteam.org/medical-services | (503) 206-6033

PAW Team provides free and low-cost veterinary services for cats and dogs of families experiencing homelessness or those living below the federal poverty line. Services that can be provided include acute care for minor wounds, infection, or injury (non-emergency); Treatment of some chronic conditions such as thyroid, kidney, or heart disease, as well as skin allergies; diagnostics. PAW Team does not provide emergency or urgent care services.

The Pongo Fund

thepongofund.org | (503) 939-7555

The Pongo Fund provides free lifesaving care for hundreds of animals of low-income pet owners each year thanks to a mobile medical hospital and network of dedicated veterinarians and medical professionals.

Second Chance Companions

sccpets.com/compassion-grants

(360) 687-4569

Second Chance Companions offers Compassion Grants that prevent suffering and euthanasia by providing financial assistance to families with companion animals who have an immediate life-threatening/life-compromising injury or illness with a good prognosis. As a condition of the grant, your pet must be or become spayed/neutered, microchipped, and current on all required vaccinations. Pet owners must first apply to CareCredit or Scratchpay.

This information is provided as a resource for our community. We cannot guarantee coverage or support from any resource listed here. Contact information, enrollment processes, and qualifications may change without our knowledge. Please contact the organization providing the service for additional information.