1: Dinner with the Mayor of Vancouver

VALUE: $1,000

Ann Pillsbury and Betty Crocker are a distant second and third when it comes to competing with a pie baked by Mayor Anne McEnerny-Ogle of Vancouver. And as good as the pie will be, what comes before is even better! You'll be joined by Mayor Anne and her husband Terry for dinner for six at The Cove. Overlooking Tidewater Cove Marina on the scenic Columbia River, great views are just the start of what The Cove has to offer. You'll enjoy a menu featuring fresh seafood, NW cuisine, craft cocktails, and local beer and wine in a stunning riverfront environment. The Cove features the very best seasonal offerings, crafted with the finest ingredients sourced from a network of small farmers and suppliers. Whether you're dining outdoors on the patio or in their spacious dining room, it's a dinner (and a pie!) you won't forget.

PACKAGE INCLUDES:

- Private Dinner at The Cove with Mayor Anne McEnerny-Ogle for four guests, in addition to Mayor Anne and Terry
- Freshly baked pie made by the Mayor

THANK YOU

Mayor Anne McEnerny-Ogle, The Cove, George Francisco

6: Sometimes Bigger is Better...

VALUE: $4,500

... if you're entertaining a crowd. From the cellar of David Nierenberg, we are delighted to offer three large format bottles of Vieux Télégraphe that are about as rare as they come. How rare? Often times no more than six or 12 of these large format sized-bottles are ever imported into the United States! Vieux Télégraphe is one of the Rushmore producers of Chateauneuf-du-Pape and these well-aged offerings will make for the centerpiece of a great dinner or party for a bunch of people. Rhone and big red wine fans, this is a must!

PACKAGE INCLUDES:

- Jeroboam - 2010 Châteauneuf-du-Pape La Crau by Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe
- Salmanazar - 2011 Châteauneuf-du-Pape La Crau by Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe
- Salmanazar - 2012 Châteauneuf-du-Pape La Crau by Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe

For those of you keeping score at home, a jeroboam is the equivalent of three liters or four bottles. A salmanazar is equivalent to nine liters or 12 bottles.
